Social Studies with Ms. Zaca

Highlight of the Week

Students analyzed and broke down Washington's farewell address and the suggestions/warnings he gave to the young nation. With that being said, students closed the book on Washington's presidency and dove into John Adams presidency with the unfortunate incident of the XYZ affair! Students were given their unit 3 study guide and are encouraged to begin reviewing it for their upcoming unit 3 test.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE

To help you better understand your child's assignments, I recommend that parents become Guardians on Google Classroom. Google Classroom is a tool I have always used, on campus and distance learning. Anything we do in class, always gets posted on Google Classroom. To become a guardian for your child's Social Studies class, please email me with the request and I will invite you to the page.
szaca@tracykc.net

As a guardian, you can get email summaries about your student's activity in Classroom. Email summaries do not include grades. For grades, ask your student or contact the teacher.

In email summaries, you can review:

- Missing work—Work not turned in when the summary was sent
- Upcoming work—Work that's due today and tomorrow (for daily emails) or that's due in the upcoming week (for weekly emails).
- Class activities—Announcements, assignments, and questions recently posted by teachers

I will also be able to quickly email you from there to let you know of any important messages in regards to a specific assignment.

Another useful tip for my classroom is all assigned homework assignments all have an accompanying video that helps explain and show the students how to do them. These videos can be found on Google Classroom in classwork, under the topic Homework videos.

I am sharing with you all some of the tutorial videos I have created with the students. Although these are not hyperlinked, you should be able to highlight the link and copy and paste it into your browser!

Language Arts with Mrs. Cerezo

Welcome back! We are now back from Thanksgiving Break and are hitting the ground running. This week students learned how to properly construct a conclusion paragraph. We read several examples of successful conclusion paragraphs and students had a few opportunities to write and share one of their own.

We also began reading from our second novel this week-- The Breadwinner by Deborah Ellis. I am looking forward to continuing to read together as a class!

Students had their first essay of trimester two due on Thursday and we spent some time in class reviewing them and conferencing with students to discuss three main things (thesis statements, evidence in body paragraphs, and successful conclusions).

Students will need to select a book of their choice to read (a book club book) by 12/10. Be sure that your student has selected a grade level appropriate book. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Language Arts with Ms. Greene and Ms. Polo

Welcome back from Thanksgiving Break! I hope it was restful for everyone. This week back was focused on completing a complete essay, specifically conclusion paragraphs.

In all classes we have been working on a compare and contrast essay based on a short story and poem we have read.

We finally started our Trimester 2 book, The Breadwinner, and students seem to be enjoying it already. This book is based on a family that lives in Afghanistan and is living during the time of the Cold War.

Friday Assignments: Every Friday there is Humanities Friday (a reading and questions based on a picture) and a Test for the week. THESE ARE THE WAY WE KEEP TRACK OF ATTENDANCE FOR FRIDAYS!

Look forward to:

12/8 Timed Write

12/9 Soundbites

12/14 Comic Strip Project (Due 12/16)
