Social Studies with Ms. Zaca

Highlight of the Week

This week students reviewed the Election of 1800 and the flaw in the election system that caused the tie between Thomas Jefferson and Aaron Burr to happen. Students took notes in their notebooks and watched a short video clip that explained the creation of our 12th amendment. Students finished off the week by examining the Supreme Court case Marbury vs Madison and the principle of Judicial Review.

Next week students will learn about Jefferson's domestic and foreign policies and the expansion of the United States through the Louisiana Purchase.

Upcoming dates:

Friday, January 22nd, HW #32 Flipgrid is due

HW #29, pages 9 and 10 vocab due Thursday, January 21st.

Another useful tip for my classroom is all assigned homework assignments all have an accompanying video that helps explain and show the students how to do them. These videos can be found on Google Classroom in classwork, under the topic Homework Videos.

Math with Mr. Dhillon

Varsity: We started with unit 2 Rational Numbers . We did the review of lesson 3 , 4 and 5 and also took quiz 3 . From Monday we will start the lesson 6 to 9. We are practicing basic concepts of math on IXL everyday .

Scholastic: We Completed unit 3. We started with unit 4 and also completed 4.1 to 4.5 and completed quiz 1 .We will start with 4.6 to 4.9 and take quiz 2.

Honors: We Completed quiz 3 and also took unit test4 . We will start with unit 5 .

Language Arts with Mrs. Cerezo

This week students turned in another compare and contrast essay assignment where they were asked to compare two characters from the novel The Breadwinner. I conferenced with each of the students to discuss their work and gave them in-real-time feedback. Their writing is improving as a result of these one-on-one conferences.

Next week we will be moving into discussing how to host a debate and students will begin a research project on a Cold War topic of their choice. This research project will somewhat resemble the second trimester SWO that students typically write during this time of year, but on a smaller scale. They will research a topic, write a research paper, and then will present their findings to the class.

Tests weekly on Fridays! Be sure your student is studying their vocabulary words.

Language Arts with Ms. Greene and Ms. Polo

We have finally completed reading The Breadwinner. The students really enjoyed the book and now we will move on in the trimester with some short stories and I will be introducing a Research Project next week. This project will be a mini SWO in a sense.

- Reminders:
- Look on Google Classroom for due dates.

- No late assignments will be accepted
- Be on time and engaged online

Friday Assignment: January 8th: Quiz

Math with Mrs. Rapp

All dates are subject to change based on the pace of the class

Varsity: Continuing in Unit 4 with Functions and Graphs. We will have a quiz this week on Lessons 1-4 and continue on in Unit 4 with Integers and all four operations.

Scholastic: Quiz was pushed and so we will have a quick review on 1/19 and then take Quiz 1 for Unit 2. This quiz will cover Lessons 1-5. We will then continue with Lesson 6 in Unit 2.

Honors: Continuing in Unit 4 with Applications. Unit 4 test is quickly approaching, date TBD.

This week in art... (Ms. Losen)

This week in art we continued filming scenes and it was so encouraging to see students engaged in every step of the process, some creating shot lists, others memorizing lines, and a few even taking turns directing!

Physical Education:

DCS PE has been going Awesome on campus, with thinking out side of the box & incorporating new “Social Distance Learning Fitness Games” in Coach Lavand, Coach P. & Coach Williams’ classes! Unfortunately, with the slight hiccup this past week we will be continuing our New Units: “Spikeball, Ramp Shot & Frisbee Golf” when we get back on January 25th.

Parents/Guardians, please make sure students are checking their “Google PE Classroom” daily for assignments, as well as reading/following the directions throughly, for assignments being posted by each individual Coach! Enjoy your three day weekend...See ya on “PT Tuesday” & Continue to stay safe!!! :)
