Language Arts with Mrs. Cerezo- Week 38!

Last week we wrapped up state testing for both 5^{th} and 7^{th} . There are still some students who need to finish the test, but most have gotten it completed and are ready for our final weeks of the year!

In the final weeks we will write one more essay and convert it to a speech that will take place in front of the class. We will also complete our final novel for the year, Wolf Hollow and begin preparing for a mock trial event based on the plot of the book.

Just a few more weeks to go!

Language Arts with Ms. Greene

This week in Honors we are focusing on finishing Wolf Hollow and next week State Testing will take place. In Scholastic and Varsity we are aiming to finish Wolf Hollow in the following week. After State Testing we will be doing some end of the year activities including speeches and a mock trial.
