Language Arts with Mrs. Cerezo- Week 41!

One week to go!! Students have been working diligently on their Mock Trial roles for their final project of the year. This Mock Trial event includes learning about what a Mock Trial is, the roles of those in the courtroom, leading vs. direct questions, and the role of a jury. Students have taken on these roles and will actually hold the trial on Tuesday of the final week of school. Their participation in the Mock Trial will count as their final for the year.

We are ending the year with a Mock Trial based on Wolf Hollow. The classes voted on the case they wanted to do and not surprisingly they both chose Betty's death and who did it. The last week of school classes will be holding the trial. This is the final assignment for the year.

Music with Mr. Dougherty:

We have been having fun with boomwhackers in class. It has been for all the kids to get their hands on an instrument and play music!

The link below is a video of an 8th grade class playing “Love Story” by Taylor Swift. We had a great time playing it.
